

Wisdom:

A Gift to God's People

In the books of Job, Psalms and Proverbs, the Lord repeatedly offers his people the recipe for finding true wisdom. Contrary to the fancies of this world, wisdom is not found in books or classrooms, at the feet of professors or in the hard drives of computers. At best these can only impart superficial knowledge. However, in the pages of his Word, the Lord presents his people with the gift of true wisdom, wisdom necessary to navigate through this life and attain the joys of heaven.

This six session study provides insight into the Wisdom Literature of the Bible – with special emphasis on the book of Proverbs, a remarkable collection of gems that provide practical advice for daily living.

Session 1: What Is Wisdom?

Session 2: Solomon: A Man of Wisdom

Session 3: What is a Proverb and Introduction to the Book of Proverbs

Session 4: Proverbs for Marriage, Parents and Children

Session 5: Proverbs for Personal Finance, Business and Commerce

Session 6: Proverbs for Governing and Citizenship, and Lifestyle

The authors Rev. George Ferch (WELS) and Reynold Kremer have co-written several Kremer Resources Bible Study programs in the past. See kremerresources.com for details of other courses.

There are included many discussion questions with each lesson. Because of the nature of the questions, there is no answer manual with this course.
